Unit-III

3. Write a précis of the following passage and suggest its suitable title:- 10
- Liberty is not a personal affair only but a social contract. It is an accommodation of interest in matters which do not touch anybody else's liberty of course, I may be free as I like if I choose to go down the strand in a dressing – gown with long hair and bare feet. You have liberty to laugh at me, but I have liberty to the indiferent to you. And if I have a fancy for dying my hair or waxing my moustache or wearing a tall hat a frock coat and sandals or going to bed or getting up early I shall follow my fancy and ask no Man's Permission. I shall not enquire of you whether I may eat mustard with my mutton. I may like mutton with mustard. You will not ask me whether you may be a protestant or a Catholic, whether you may marry the dark lady or the fair lady, whether you may prefer Elia Whales Wilcox to wordsworth or sleeping to going for walk everyday, but by following our own choices we rarely can prove same in the society.

Unit-IV

4. (a) Read the following passage carefully and answer the questions given at the end :- 5
- Trees give shade for the benefits of others, and while they themselves stand in the Sun and endure the scorching heat they produce the fruit by which others profit. The character of good men is like that of trees. What is the use of this perishable body, if no use of it is made for the benefit of mankind? Sandal wood – the more it is pealed and cut up into pieces the more brightly does it shine. The men who are noble at heart do not lose these qualities even by losing their lives. What matter is whether we abide by them or not? What does it signify whether they die at this moment or their lives are prolonged? Mapping what way those who tread in the right path will not set foot in any other. To live for the sake of mere living one's life is to live the life of dogs and crows. Those who lay down their lives for the sake of a stranger, will surely dwell for ever in a world of wiss

Questions:-

- (i) What are the qualities of trees which they have in common with good men?
(ii) Why are good men indifferent for praise or riches?
